OUTLOOK

Philippine-issued dollar-denominated notes ended the month of March on a positive note. Risk assets continue to trade favorably following the series of strong data releases in the US. In the most recent FOMC, the US Federal Reserve maintained its outlook of 3 rate cuts for the year, but inflation expectations and growth projections were adjusted higher. Over the month of March, US Treasuries traded sideways within a 20 to 25 basis point range across the curve given the uncertain rate cut outlook. The Fund currently maintains a duration that is neutral to the benchmark after reducing its exposure to US Treasuries. On a gross-of-fees basis, the Sun Life Prosperity Dollar Abundance Fund underperformed the benchmark year to-date due to previous overweight duration positioning.
