OUTLOOK

Local bonds saw a sharp correction last June as market participants took profits and turned defensive after the Federal Reserve (Fed) and other major Central Banks such as the Bank of Canada provided hawkish policy guidance. As market participants turned defensive, bids pulled back, and weekly auctions drew tepid demand. This forced the BTR to give concessions to fill the auction volume. Back-end of the curve underperformed as the sell-off deepened after the 10-year yield broke above the 6% level. May headline inflation printed at 6.1% year-on-year, which is in-line with consensus expectation. The steady downtrend in inflation allowed the Bangko Sentral ng Pilipinas (BSP) to keep policy rate unchanged at 6.25% and adjust its 2023 inflation forecast lower. However, these did little to improve market sentiment. The portfolio will look to increase duration opportunistically, while market participants price in very hawkish outcomes. On a gross-of-fees basis, the Fund leads the benchmark year to-date due to security selection, and overweight duration stance relative to the benchmark.
